

Air1 is a very important part of my daily life. Air1 is the only contemporary alternative station in my area, and the only radio station I listen to. Air1 has a great impact on the local community by providing a positive message through the music it plays. Air1 encourages its listeners and gives them hope in the unsure times that we live in.